

Jonathan Page, Retired Professional Cyclocross Racer
Multiple Time USA Professional Cyclocross Champion
2006/2007 UCI Cyclocross Worlds, Silver Medal

September 7th - 9th, 2018
Ridgeland, Mississippi

Come learn cyclocross skills and technique from one of the best in American Cyclocross History! Jonathan Page will be in Ridgeland, Mississippi to teach a cyclocross clinic on September 7th - 9th. Page will cover basic & advanced cross skills and technique in order to make you a more proficient cross racer. During the clinic, Page will cover equipment issues, tires and pressures, corning, line selection, barrier technique, the all-important start, as well as how to ride through mud and sand. Page will be here to answer any training and/or racing related questions you have in order to become a better cyclocross rider or racer.

This will be a fun and informative clinic before the cyclocross season gets underway. Limited spots available!

Also, Page will offer private session upon request during his visit.
